

THIS IS MY CITY - A This Is My City, Inc. Production

Tim and Thomas travel around the world and meet complete strangers who want to show them what life is really like in their cities. It could be magic. It could be a disaster. But it's the only way they want to travel.

Format: HD. Unscripted. Uncensored

Length: 22 minutes

Hosts: Tim and Thomas

Locations: Cities across the world

Guides: A contact from Craigslist; a stranger in a bar;
a friend of a friend of a cousin of a friend

Young travelers don't look for guidebooks or gift shops to help discover a new city. We look for adventure. And a little mischief.

After years of vacationing with our parents and taking school trips, boarding another tour bus is simply travel suicide. We want to live. We want to go straight to where the locals go, and get to know them along the way. We want to feel the true heartbeat of the city; cross to the other side of the tracks, discover those secret, magical pubs, clubs and hideaways. We don't want to be outsiders looking in, we want to experience the real thing in that place that no one knows about except for the people who call it home.

This Is My City is a new kind of travel show.

Every week we find a stranger to give us their take on their town. This "tour-guide" may be a Craigslist find, or maybe a friend of a friend of a cousin of a friend. Either way, we are new to them and they are new to us. It's equally a recipe for success and disaster.

Together, we film everything -- and we don't say "no" to anything. We talk, curse, play, eat, drink, dance, cause trouble, meet friends, enemies, family and lovers. We share the adventures of a lifetime, all on our subject's home turf. This Is My City is a show about what cities mean to the people who live in them, brought to you in the most personal way. It's not about seeing the sights, it's about seeing the soul.

Contact:
Thomas Beug
347.204.6108
thomas@thisismycity.tv